ADVERTISING PULLS

"It there is one thing on earth that a quitter should leave severely alone, it is advertising," says John Wanamaker. "To make a success of advertising one must be prepared to stick to it like a barnacle on a boat's bottom. Advertising doesn't jerk; it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It is likened to a team pulling a heavy load. A thousand spasmodic, jerky pulls will not budge that load, while one-half the power in steady effort will start it and keep it moving."

Ringling's circus is sending out their advertising for their big show to the country newspapers. They are offering two reserve seat tickets for $10.00 worth of advertising and the newspapers are jumping after the offer like a trout after a grasshopper. If you see a 200 line write up in a country newspaper you may rest assured that some one of the force intends to grease his shoes, don a stand up collar and with his best girl lie away to Springfield on circus day, spend $5.00 for transportation, peanuts and red lemonade, so as to have the great privilege of using a couple of tickets for which he had paid $10.00 in advertising. Great launches us editors.

MONUMENTAL TALKS.

The agent for non-resident firms tells you what bargains he is furnishing in monuments; how in some way he is saving a deal of freight selling work at wholesale, owning large manufacturing plants, and possibly owns a quarry or two.

But possibly he forgets to tell you what commission or salary he is getting for selling work, what his traveling expenses are per month; also that he would be of no use to the firm he works for unless he made them a profit in addition to these extra expenses; that in any saving of freight or some other expense it is the local dealer who has the advantage; that the best satisfaction and best terms in buying monuments are obtained from buying direct from some reliable dealer and not through agents; that the best work is not obtained from the "cheap John" talker, and cheap work is dear at any price.

We do not employ agents. Cramer's monuments are dependable in every way. Give us a chance to show you what he can do, then if for any reason you do not think to your best interests to patronize the home dealer we will be glad to give you the names of other reliable dealers. It is not necessary to buy through agents and pay the extra salary or commission.
